POLITICAL.

Gen. William F. Draper, former American ambassador to Italy, is dead in Washington.

Milton Anderson, aged 70, is dead at the home of his niece, Mrs. Nathan Bogie, in Garrard.

The bill to enable Louisville to construct a new city hospital passed the Kentucky Senate by a unanimous vote.

The Pineville Sun suggests Gen. P. Wat Hardin as an independent candidate for Congress in the Eleventh district.

President Taft sent to the Senate the nomination of F. W. Parker to be assistant justice of the supreme court of New Mexico.

The withdrawal of Judge Frank Critz from the Senatorial contest in Mississippi was announced at Jackson. His withdrawal did not materially aid in breaking the dead-lock.

The postal savings bank bill was favorably reported to the Senate from the Senate Committee on Post-offices and Postroads practically in the form submitted by the subcommittee.

The Kentucky Legislature passed a resolution urgently inviting the governors to hold their next conference in Frankfort. Gov. Willson, of Kentucky, is chairman of the committee to select the place of meeting.

Admitting that the Payne-Aldrich tariff law would have to be justified by the results of its practical operation, Representative Boutell, of Illinois, a member of the committee which framed the measure, made a vigorous defense of the new law in the House.

Primaries for selecting the democratic nominees in four Congressional districts of the State will be held next month, but so far no action has been taken by the party authorities in this, the Eighth Congressional district, looking to the manner and time of choosing our nominee. Hon. J. Norton Fitch, district chairman, is expected to issue a call for a meeting of the committee at an early date. It is said that a majority of the committee favor a primary and an early one, in order that it may be over and out of the way in time for any sore spots to heal before the election this fall. So far there has been only one official announcement—that of the present Representative in Congress—Harvey Helm.—Shelby Sentinel.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

The "court-house" at Burnside was damaged $200 by fire.

Stock in the Citizens National Bank of Lancaster sold for $158.

E. N. Steeley, a leading merchant of Williamsburg, is dead, aged 62.

Dann Carr, colored, was given a life sentence for killing Hal Denny, at Burgin.

Bryant Newby has been appointed postmaster at Whitlock, in Madison county.

George Hansford and G. W. Cochran, aged and prominent Casey county citizens, are dead.

Mr. Isaiah Jackson, aged 62, died at his home near Mt. Hebron, Garrard county, after a protracted illness.

June Wren, charged with burning Nuchol's tobacco barn near Paint Lick, was held over to the grand jury in $200.

There now seems a good chance that Mrs. Eugenia Dunlap Potts, of this city, and who is one of the best-known women in Central Kentucky, will receive nearly half a million dollars as reimbursement for cotton belonging to Mrs. Potts which was seized by the United States at the close of the Civil War, says a Lexington dispatch.

The loss of the Lexington Gazette would not be so much except that it takes out of the ranks of journalism that most unique writer and prince of good fellows, Will Walton. The mistake in the establishment of the Gazette was that it was intended primarily as a political organ. When the paper was on its last legs the directors persuaded Walton to take charge in the hope that he could put it on its feet again. That he failed was no fault of his. He was up against a hopeless proposition. But Walton will not consent to be a back number, and we hope to see him again at the head of a prosperous paper. Meantime may he get all the good things he deserves, and that will be plenty.—Ed Leigh in Bowling Green Messenger.

A Frightful Wreck.

of train, automobile or buggy may cause cuts, bruises, abrasions, sprains or wounds that demand Bucklen's Arnica Salve—earth's greatest healer. Quick relief and prompt cure results. For burns, boils, sores of all kinds, eczema, chapped hands and lips, sore eyes or cores, its supreme. Surest pile cure. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

WANTED, to buy a good Lincoln county farm of the value of $20,000 to $30,000. Address Lock Box 204, Stanford, Ky.

HUSTONVILLE.

D. C. Allen's splendid harness mare died of colic.

Mrs. Bettie Barnett has rented for cash several acres of tobacco land at $45 without barn room.

Portman Peacock, a native of our city, but for several years a resident of St. Louis, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Bring your pictures in and have them framed. See samples of mouldings and make your own selection. Prices right. Adams Bros., Hustonville.

On account of the illness of Miss Helen Hocker, the C. W. B. M. meeting which was to have been held with her will be held with Mrs. John J. Allen on Thursday afternoon.

Wm. Riggins, one of Casey's cleverest gentlemen, has bought the Thomas J. Robinson farm adjoining our city limits on the Danville pike at $100 per acre. We gladly welcome this family to our community.

Mrs. Katherine Warriner and daughter, Miss Kate, of Liberty, spent Saturday with Mrs. Judge Wm. Myers, their relative. They leave this week for Lexington, where Mrs. W. goes to make her home while completing Katie's musical education.

Miss Alice Cabbell has returned from a week's visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stagg at Kiddville. Miss Myrtle Drye, of Bradfordville, is the handsome guest of Mrs. John Dinwiddie. Mrs. Daniel Traylor spent some days last week with her friends and parents here. Lee Edgington, of our city, has accepted a position in Anderson, Ind., with a large automobile factory. He is quite a mechanic and will soon learn the business. Mrs. Nannie W. Owens, a native of our city, but a resident of Raleigh, N. C., for several years, has returned to Louisville, where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. M. F. Bradley.

One of our largest tobacco raisers sold and delivered his crop last week and receiving a draft, concluding he wanted the currency, he presented the draft, and asked for it, which he very promptly received, amounting to $11,000. The bills not being large the bulk necessitated a large feed basket in which to carry it home. That a farmer in this community can produce a crop that one ordinary two-horse wagon-load will bring him $699 is certainly most convincing evidence of the productiveness of the lands sold by W. R. Williams & Co., Hustonville, Ky., who have farms adjoining above land for sale.

Ruel Spragens, who for some years has been chief electrician and superintendent of our telephone company, and whose work has been most satisfactory, has accepted a position with the National Harvester Co. His headquarters will be in Louisville and we predict that success will be his. George M. Givens is visiting James Harbeson and other Perryville relatives. John Lynn and James Allen are both much better. The little daughter of A. J. Weddle has pneumonia. Mrs. Burdette Powell and son Henry are on the sick list. Cleve Dunn is acting superintendent of our telephone company and is catching on rapidly.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. D. M. Walker will conduct the prayer meeting services at the Methodist church Thursday night.

An interesting protracted meeting is in progress at Hebron church. It will continue through this week.

REV. AND MRS. J. J. DICKEY went to Louisville Monday to attend the Laymen's Missionary Convention.

Rev. Robert Campbell, of Danville, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Waddy Christian church.—Advocate.

Dr. R. H. Crossfield, of Lexington, has recently closed a meeting at one of the Christian churches in Washington City which resulted in 102 conversions. Most of them were baptized into the church.

The Laymen's Missionary Convention which meets in Louisville to-night, Tuesday, is one of 75 conventions being held in that many cities in the United States. The meetings began in October and will close in April with a National convention at Chicago. The movement is undenominational and its object is to awaken a greater interest in missions. Already an increase of almost $1,000,000 over last year's contributions has been pledged in the cities where these meetings have been held.

Work 24 Hours a Day.

The busiest little things ever made are Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health that changes weakness into strength, languor into energy, brain-fog into mental power; curing Constipation, Headache, Chills, Dyspepsia, Malarial 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

A Bourbon county Negro was fined $8.25 for failure to pay taxes on his dog.

Three Negro prisoners in the county jail at Hopkinsville sawed a bar and made their escape.

William Jennings Bryan and family have arrived in Peru and are being winced and dined by her populace.

Mrs. Flora Baker, of Newport, whom John Losey is accused of shooting, died and the charge against him has been amended to murder.

Francis Goddard, convicted murderer, took advantage of permission to attend his wife's funeral at Gallipolis, O., and escaped from his guards.

Engineer Charles Trout, of Somerset, was killed and Fireman Wilson was probably fatally injured in a wreck on the Q & C., near Robbins, Tenn.

The campaign for an amendment to the constitution of Indiana prohibiting the manufacture or sale of liquor in that State, was opened at South Bend Saturday.

The story of the birth of quadruplets to Mrs. W. W. Wilson, of Los Angeles, proves to have been a hoax. None of the children are hers and the courts have taken a hand in the affair.

Over 1,800 people attended the funeral services held at Covington Sunday over the body of the late Arthur Goebel. The sermon was preached by Dr. Gilbert Schmidt, assisted by Dr. Albert Hammerschmidt.

Returning from a wedding party, Samuel Lulu, a Roumanian, in this country but a short time, blew out the gas in a rooming house near Indianapolis, and he and Mrs. Essie Beckman, 26 years old, were asphyxiated.

Three men were drowned when the towboat Enterprise struck a skiff in which the men were crossing the Mississippi river at Memphis. A fourth man in the skiff when it was run down, escaped by swimming ashore.

The Seine at Paris has begun to fall slowly. Tidalings from flooded districts above Paris gave hope of a more rapid fall. Hundreds of persons are reported without food and homeless, but the government is coming to their aid.

Unless Gov. Willson interferes and grants a commutation of the sentence, Floyd Frazier must hang for the murder of Ellen Flannery, in Letcher county. The Court of Appeals affirmed the decision of the lower court in his case.

The Kentucky court of appeals Thursday said the final word in two important cases when it overruled petitions for rehearing cases of the Burley Tobacco Society against J. E. Gaitzkill, etc., and J. H. Parrish against the Commonwealth.

One naval prisoner was shot and killed and a second probably fatally wounded by a guard at the Navy Yard, at Portsmouth, N. H., while the men were trying to escape in a boat. A third man accompanying them was wounded and captured.

The investigation into the operations of the Postoffice Department, Forestry Service and Interior Department are having a very depressing effect upon republican leaders. The future success of the party is said to look alarmingly gloomy, even to the most hopeful and faithful.

Attorney General Breathitt has submitted to Gov. Willson a lengthy opinion, in which he holds that the Legislature can authorize the issuance of $500,000 bonds to meet the deficit in the State's funds for obligations already contracted, and that such action will be legal without ratification by the people.

In a revolver duel at Edgewood mines, near Middlesboro, Deputy Sheriff Cordon Givens and Benjamin Gatliff, a miner, were each mortally wounded. Givens was attempting to arrest Gatliff on a charge of disorderly conduct. Givens figured conspicuously as an officer of the local military company in suppressing the night riders in Western Kentucky two years ago.

Louis R. Glavis finished his testimony before the Joint Congressional Committee inquiring into the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy. He declared, among other things, that Mr. Ballinger, on one occasion, instructed him not to pursue an investigation against Representative McLachlan, of California, who held a claim in the Green group of coal lands in Alaska. He quoted Mr. Ballinger as saying there had been too much of that sort of thing in the past.

Those Pies Of Boyhood.

How delicious were the pies or boyhood. No pies now—ever taste so good. What's changed? the pies? No. Its you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

BRODHEAD.

Rev. W. D. Powell, of Louisville, gave an interesting lecture on Missions at the Baptist church Sunday night.

The play entitled—"The Squire's Daughter"—rendered by the Hamilton Club Saturday night, was the finest affair of the kind ever witnessed in Brodhead, as well as being a success financially.

Mr. E. A. Adams, who moved from Hiatt section three years ago to Hydro, Oklahoma, has returned to this county and is temporarily located here. He contemplates buying a farm near Stanford.

R. H. Hamm and Mrs. Matilda Potts were married in Louisville Thursday by Judge Weissenger. Mrs. Potts is a pretty milliner and Mr. Hamm is one of the leading merchants of this place. Here's to you and yours, "R. H."

W. C. Swineford, formerly of this place, but later of Lebanon Junction, was here Saturday, saying goodbye to his friends. He leaves with his family Tuesday, for Aztec, N. M., where he will engage in the restaurant business.

Misses Jalia and Sallie Reynolds, of Maresburg, were with the Misses McCall Sunday. A. E. Albright and daughter, Miss Lena, attended the 5th Sunday meeting at Fairview church, near Boone Postoffice, Sunday. Mrs. Clyde Hilton, of Stanford, and Mrs. Robert Collier, of Crab Orchard, were the guests of the former's parents Sunday. Chas. Pike, of Etowah, Tenn., is with his parents here this week. Messrs. Wm. Kreuger, Wm. Fish and Ben Griffin attended church here Sunday night. Mrs. W. H. Sowder was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harris, in the Sayers neighborhood, Sunday. Ex-Judge C. H. Frith attended the Hamm-Potts wedding in Louisville last Thursday.

MATRIMONIAL.

Robt. C. Pike and Miss Bettie Pennington were married at Lexington.

Miss Bertha Christopher, of lower Garrard, and Alfred Swope, of Bryantsville, were married at Lancaster.

A Bloomington, Ill., dispatch says: Although knowing his bride but a single day, Harry Teater, of Lancaster, Ky., and Miss Ora Smith, of Taylorsville, were married. The match was arranged by mutual friends, who suggested that the two correspond. Letters and photographs were exchanged and finally Teater proposed marriage. He was accepted and came up from his farm in Kentucky and was married. The romantic union attracted much attention.

"Hyomei has cured me of catarrh of long standing. It is the best thing to kill a cold I have ever got hold of."—Mrs. A. Haslan, Croton, Lee county, Ia. Sold by G. L. Penny on money back plan. Complete outfit $1; extra bottles, 50c.

The Interior Journal.

SHELTON M. SAUFLEY,
OWNER.

HON. HARVEY HELM.

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is now the property of Mr. Shelton M. Saufley, known to many of our Lincoln county readers, an experienced newspaper man and a fine gentleman. E. C. Walton, who has been with the paper 30 years and who for the past 10 years has owned it, made the sale some weeks ago but it did not go into effect until this morning. Mr. Walton will continue to run the paper until the first or middle of March, when the new owner will move over from Frankfort and take charge. Our people will gladly welcome the return of Mr. Saufley and his excellent wife and will do all in their power to make good old Stanford feel like home to them.

A SLICK SCHEME.

THAT there are more ways to kill a dog than by choking him to death with butter is a homely old saw which has been demonstrated anew by the association of circuit judges. There is a constitutional inhibition against the increase of an officer's salary during his term, but in order to get around it the judges laid their heads together and succeeded in evolving the plan to whip the devil around the stump to the tune of $1,200 a year apiece. They prepared a bill which requires them to report to the governor when they have several days of vacation between courts, and from them alone the governor is to appoint special judges. For this, whether they perform any extra work or not, they are to get $1,200 a year each in mileage, and as there are 30 or 40 judicial districts, it will be seen that it is going to take a good bunch of money to pay the extra allowance, largely more than the $30,000 that Gov. Willson has spent on special judges in the two years he has been the State's executive. The Senate has passed the bill and it is said the House will follow its lead. If it does, each judge will get a salary of $4,200 a year and while the services of some of them are cheap at double the price, there are circuit judges in the State that are hardly worth that many cents. That a majority of the judges should get more money is undeniable, but it looks a little bad when those who are elected to enforce the law should lay awake at night to find some way of violating the drastic principles of it.

THE Federal court of New York dismissed the criminal proceedings against the World for its publication in regard to scandals connected with the purchase of the right to dig the Panama canal, as a previous Federal court had dismissed a similar indictment against the Indianapolis News for the same alleged offense. The indictments were instigated by Mr. Roosevelt, whose brother-in-law was said to have been mixed up in the alleged crooked deals, and when the news reaches him in darkest Africa he will doubtless be so mad that he will go and shoot out the heart of the first jeopord he finds.

THE Court of Appeals has dismissed the suit against the Burley Tobacco Society brought by certain Clark county tobacco raisers for the appointment of receivers, and ordered that the receivers appointed by Judge Benton turn over the $300,000 and over that they had taken possession of, which was to its credit in the Winchester banks. The suit seems to have been the result of spite against the society because of the removal of its headquarters to Lexington and the result shows the value of having a court of last resort that is not influenced by local conditions.

MRS. HENRY YOUTSEY has been granted a decree of divorce and a restoration to her maiden name. She has suffered for ten years and done all in her power to secure the freedom of her convict husband and certainly deserves the relief. And now if a good man who does not care more for a measly $1,200 office than he does for her, seeks and secures her hand in marriage she may live to forget the horrible nightmare through which she has passed.

It is all up with Beach Hargis. He has to go to the penitentiary for life for murdering his father, the Court of Appeals having affirmed the verdict of the lower court. His neck ought to have paid the penalty, but a merciful jury saved it, possibly so that he could join his cousin, Curt Jett, and like him seek and, as he says he has, secure pardon for his sins, even though the Bible says no murderer can enter the kingdom of Heaven.

THE Harrodsburg Herald has a learned disquisition on "Liars, Good, Bad and Indifferent." A good liar is something new under the sun and our friends doubtless account for him like Tobe Grier described a show when he said "it was so d-d bad it was really good."

REPRESENTATIVE BEN JOHNSON was at the White House this morning. He had a long conference with the president but declined positively to state what matters were considered, says a Washington dispatch. We suppose he was explaining to the president why he took a hand in trying to accomplish gag rule for the Kentucky Senate by suggesting a two-thirds vote to take a bill from a committee and to have the rules adopted without a vote of the body. He might have been successful in convincing the president, but he will have a hard time making Kentuckians believe that his suggestions were in their interest.

It has practically been decided that the burial of Arthur Goebel by the side of his brother in the Frankfort cemetery will occur on the same day the statue of Gov. Goebel is unveiled, next Thursday, Feb. 3. The selection of the burial place and the date is most appropriate. The same bullet virtually killed them both and it is mete that united in life by the tenderest love, their bodies should not be divided in death. Every admirer of the martyred governor and of him whose devotion was unto death, should make it a point to attend the dual event of unveiling and burial.

GOV. WILLSON fired another broadside of some 10,000 words at the Legislature on the subjects of a new tax plan, the erection of a new executive mansion and an appeal to let well enough alone by retaining the bi-partisan feature of the board of control. He then tried to partially atone for the infliction by inviting the body to his home to a reception, which is to occur to-night.

THE Lexington newspapers are a gullible pair or do not mind gulling the public. The night rider story started by a drunken janitor of the building in which the offices of the Burley Tobacco Society are located and of threat of the men to kill President LeBus, was the thinnest fake ever perpetrated. Both papers ought to beg the pardon of their patrons and be treated for the "sillies."

THE Federal court at Atlanta released on habeas corpus proceedings of a revenue official, who had been sent to jail for contempt by a State court because he refused to divulge information which he had gained officially with reference to a distillery operating in Georgia. This looks like the general government is "in league with hell" and the liquor traffic.

A TURK, who came to this country to reside, was ordered to be deported when in answer to a question he said that he thought a man ought to marry as many wives as he could support. This looks like rather drastic action since so many men are permitted to marry women whom they make no effort to support.

THERE is something in a name sometimes. At any rate when it begins with a letter way down in the alphabet Senator Vice, of Bath county, has been unable to present bills for several days, because the body adjourned before his name was called. However, a man with such a patronymic deserves to get left.

THE Legislature has already authorized the payment of $8,200 for extra help which was not needed, and now if it will follow up the extravagance by appropriating $2,000 for a "Legislative Digest," all will be well with the proponents and promoters of the skin games.

CONN LINN, who was acting governor for a few hours last week, will go to Oklahoma to practice law after his term as Senator expires.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian. After his conn game with the county unit bill, there is one thing sure, and that is that he will never "practice" statesmanship again in Kentucky.

SINCE there is such a great ado over the price of meat in the cities, 1 Corinthians 8:13 might be parodied to read: "Wherefore, if high price meat make my brother to suffer, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth," or until the price is reduced.

SECRETARY WILSON says that the necessities of life cost more in America than anywhere in the world. It doesn't require an investigating committee or a wise-acre to discover this self-evident proposition.

EVANSTON, ILL., doctors have raised the price of officiating at births more than 100 per cent.; another reason for race suicide and argument against the high prices of the necessities of life.

The Great Texas Panhandle.

Rich land is the basis of all wealth. The safest investment and the surest money maker, is rich farming land. God is still resting on the "seventh day." He is not making any more land. The Texas Panhandle is the last of the rich, level land for settlement in this country. Fortunes will be made on the advance in price on these lands in the next few years. Home seekers will go no further when they see it. Swisher county is the garden spot and "pride of the plains." The best watered and the richest land, no clearing or grubbing, no floods or cyclones. High altitude, delightful climate. A proven wheat country. First prize awarded our wheat and oats at the National Corn Exposition at Omaha, Nebraska. For free illustrated booklet, address JAMES FRYE, SEC. TULIA COMMERCIAL CLUB, Tulia, Swisher County Texas.

STABLE FOR RENT.—Has three stalls, loft, etc. Located on street and convenient for use. Mrs. L. B. Cook, Stanford.

THE Mt. Vernon Signal agrees with us that Stanford needs a new depot. And everybody does, so far as that is concerned.

SENATOR BRADLEY has secured a pension of $30 a month for Francis M. Thompson and a similar one for Richard M. Johnson, of Rockcastle.

NEWS comes from Paducah that the wife of Dr. Cicero Eubanks, formerly of this county, was burned to death. She is survived by her husband and one son.

SOLD OUT.—I have sold my stock of groceries and insist on all who owe me an account to please call and settle so I can straighten up my business at once. Respectfully, J. M. Phillips.

WANTED.—25 salesmen and 25 salesladies to work during our sale which begins to-morrow, Wednesday. Also bundle-wrappers and cash boys. Apply Tuesday afternoon to Sam Goldstein, Stanford.

"THEODORE, THE TERRIBLE," could find no fault with Lincoln county's jailer, "Uncle Dink" Farmer. Theodore recommends large families and Mr. Farmer has one—18 children in all—12 of whom are alive. He has eight of them in the jail residence with him.

RURAL carriers are not required by the postal department to collect loose coins from rural boxes. Coins for money orders and stamps should be placed in an envelope or small coin box in order to save delay to the carrier in searching for coins in the rural boxes.

DORA FORREST, the bright little two and a half year old daughter of Mrs. Catherine McClary, died after a protracted illness of a complication of troubles late Thursday afternoon and was laid to rest in Buffalo Cemetery by the side of her father Friday afternoon, after services at the home at 3 o'clock by Rev. D. M. Walker. The mother is almost prostrated with grief and in her dark hour every heart in the community goes out to her. May He who cares for the widow and the orphan give her strength to hold up under the trials and tribulations which are now hers. Only a few short years ago her husband was taken and now her child is gone. Surely her cup of sorrow runneth over. A large crowd gathered at the McClary home to attend the funeral and followed the little white casket to the cemetery. Flowers in great profusion were sent and brought by sympathetic friends and when placed upon and around the little grave, the mound was hidden from view.

WHEN you want bargains try the Country Store. W. W. White, Prop.

FOR RENT.—Office in the INTERIOR JOURNAL building. Apply at this office.

If you are looking for fresh oysters and celery go to J. D. Horton's restaurant.

You will find high grade goods always at the Country Store. W. W. White, Prop.

PEAK.—Mrs. Amanda Peak, a half-sister of the late Col. T. P. Hill, died in Louisville and was buried here Sunday. She lived on the Hanging Fork in this county for many years.

ALL parties having claims against the estate of Dr. L. B. Cook are directed to present them properly verified to my attorney, P. M. McRoberts, at once. Mrs. L. B. Cook, administratrix.

WE desire to express our thanks to our kind neighbors and friends who were so faithful to us during the illness of our beloved husband and father. Mrs. J. H. Bright and daughters.

UNCLE ELI BOWERS, now of Lincoln, can get his mail hereafter at Gun Sulphur if it suits him better than at Crab Orchard. Representative Harvey Helm, by hard work, has finally gotten a promise of the department to establish an office at this suburb of Crab Orchard.—Washington Cor. Louisville Post.

BARGAINS IN LAND.—We have three small tracts of unimproved land for sale at a bargain—one tract of 21 acres, another of 18 acres, another of 13 acres. All well located, lie well and good land. Can give possession at once. Will sell one tract or all. Terms to suit purchaser. Apply to Hughes & Swinebroad, Lancaster, Ky.

I HAVE bought the stock of groceries of J. M. Phillips, on East Main street, and will close out the present stock at a reduced price. I have bought so I can sell lots of the stock at and below cost and will do so. Call and see for yourself, as I am going to sell these goods so I can put in a new stock. Sale will commence to-day, Friday. Terms cash to everyone. E. J. Young.

"I DIDN'T see Cummins & Wearen's advertisement in your last issue; what's the matter?" asked a friend of this paper. Well, we are to blame for it. In making up the forms so as to get Sam Goldstein's big "ad" in, we set Cummins & Wearen's aside and just forgot it. We apologize both to the clever firm and our readers for the sin of omission. Cummins & Wearen are still selling out at cost and if you want sure enough bargains you can get them of them.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL, having changed hands, its behooves the patrons of the paper to square up their accounts. If you are behind or your subscription or account on the books, you are requested to call promptly and settle and if you live too far away to bring the money, just put it in an envelope, direct it to the I. J., put on a two-cent stamp and Uncle Sam will do the rest. Please address all communications and make checks payable to Shelton M. Saufley, Stanford, Ky.

BRIGHT.—Mr. John H. Bright, one of Lincoln county's oldest, best and most respected men, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Carter, Thursday evening and was buried in Buffalo cemetery Saturday morning after services at the Christian church by Eld. Joseph Ballou. He is survived by his wife, who was a daughter of the late Logan Dawson, and two daughters, Mesdames C. H. Carter and H. R. Mills, the latter of Rock Hill, S. C. Mr. Bright spent his long life of 76 years in this county and no man stood higher. For 25 years he was a miller and many knew him as "Miller" John Bright, there being several other John Brights in the county. He was a consistent member of the Christian church since his childhood and was a regular attendant at its services as long as his health would permit. For some time, however, he had suffered from Bright's disease and he was unable to leave his home often. Great sympathy is felt for the aged wife and loving daughters, in the loss of a father who was a father in all the word means. May He give them strength to withstand the blow that has been dealt them. Less than a month ago Mr. Bright received a letter telling of the death of a brother in Missouri.

FOR SALE.—A second-hand top buggy. This office.

FISH, oysters, celery, cranberries Saturday. Geo. H. Farris.

PIANO FOR SALE.—Square variety. Will sell cheap. Apply at this office.

THREE suites of rooms in the Odd Fellows' building for rent. Apply to Ed Wilkinson.

SAM GOLDSTEIN'S great bankrupt sale will begin at 9 o'clock to-morrow, Wednesday morning. Be on hand to get your share of the bargains that will be offered. Everything will go and on many articles you can fix your own price.

MRS. J. T. HACKLEY has received news of the death of her uncle, Mr. Addison Maret, aged 85, at Webb City, Mo. He was a native of Garrard county and married Miss Mary Miller, of this county, a sister of the late George Miller, of 101 Ranch, Oklahoma.

CURTIS.—Mrs. Curtis, relict of Mr. Monroe Curtis, died in Louisville Sunday and the remains were brought to the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Murphy, on the Danville pike, yesterday. She was very old and had been blind for many years. Mrs. Curtis is survived by two daughters, Mesdames Kate Bowling, of Louisville, and M. F. Murphy, of this place, and two sons, Messrs. William Curtis, of this county, and Charles N. Curtis, of Boyle. She was a good woman and a devout member of the Christian church. The burial will occur in Buffalo cemetery this morning after services at the Murphy home by Eld. J. G. Livingston at 10 o'clock.

"BECAUSE of the inability of the county court to provide a suitable place for holding jury trials at the February term of the Lincoln circuit court, I have acceded to the request of the members of the bar that no criminal, penal or civil causes triable by jury shall be had at that term. A petit jury will not be summoned. A grand jury will be summoned as usual, and all witnesses who have been recognized by examining courts to appear at that time will attend for the purpose of testifying before the grand jury. All witnesses who have been summoned in criminal or penal causes must attend for the purpose of being recognized for appearance at the regular May term, which begins the 4th Monday of that month." M. C. Saufley, Judge.

NEGRO FOUND DEAD.—Cam Gooch, an aged Negro, was found dead in the knobs near Blaine's Gap Saturday morning, having been killed with a shot gun. His home was near Turnersville and he was on his way to Mr. B. F. Cain's to strip tobacco when he was shot. Lair's bloodhounds were sent for and they trailed as far as Jumbo, but there lost out. Gooch had a watch, pistol and about $16 in money when he left home, and it is evident that he was murdered for the purpose of robbery. Coroner George P. Bright summoned a jury and held an inquest over the body, the verdict of which in substance was: "Cam Gooch was murdered by unknown parties." It is horrible to think that a man would be murdered for money in this good, civilized county and no effort, time nor means should be spared in trying to punish the guilty party. This is the time for our people to do something. The good name of the county demands it.
